

DANIEL CORDEAUX

Daniel studied acting and physical theatre at the ATYP and Actors Centre Australia. He also studied under Keith Johnstone at the first International Improvisation Summer School in Calgary, Canada. He has been performing for over 25 years specializing in improvised theatre and TV. He has appeared regularly at the Belvoir St Theatre, Enmore Theatre, New Theatre, and the Old Fitzroy Theatre.

Daniel and his team claimed victory in the 2001 Improv World Cup representing Australia at the Just For Laughs International Comedy Festival Montreal, Canada. The same year he played in the Theatresports World Domination Tournament in Atlanta, USA, claiming second place in a solo effort for Australia.

Daniel starred on the hit TV comedy Thank God You're Here as a leading ensemble member for all four seasons of the show.

Daniel has also appeared in many different festival shows including the hit improv comedy 160 Characters performing at Melbourne International Comedy Festival, Sydney Comedy Festival, Adelaide Fringe and Singapore International Arts Festival.

His theatre credits include lead roles in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Twelfth Night, Romeo and Juliet, Accidental Death of An Anarchist, new Australian play The Schelling Point and touring Australia and New Zealand with The Umbilical Brothers.

Daniel's television credits include roles on Packed To The Rafters, Home and Away, Librarians, Rake, Jesters, The Chasers War on Everything, CXXX, and the new comedy MicroNation.

He has also appeared in number of a GetUp! TV campaigns (Coal 2.0 & Rob U Blind) and Tropfest films including 2011 finalist and award winning Silencer.

Daniel has been teaching and performing improvisation and physical theatre in schools around Australia for over 20 years. He also teaches physical theatre and improvisation at the Actors Centre Australia, Screenwise, AADA, TAFE and specialist classes for universities and colleges nationally. Daniel is also a regular performer at the Art Gallery NSW.